Birds Without Wings by Louis de Bernieres, Paperback ...

Birds Without Wings is a novel by Louis de Bernières, written in 2004. Narrated by various characters, it tells the tragic love story of Philothei and Ibrahim. It also chronicles the rise of Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, the 'Father of the Turkish Nation'. The overarching theme of the story covers the impact of religious intolerance, over-zealous nationalism, and the war that often results.

'Birds Without Wings': The
Winds of War - The New York
Times

Set on the eve of World War I, Birds Without Wings tells the story of Eskibahçe, a charming and vibrant ethnically mixed town in present-day Turkey, and how it is irrevocably changed by the ravages of nationalism, war, and religious fervor. Before the war, Eskibahçe is filled with a wild assortment of characters, Christian and Muslim, Turkish and Armenian, the mad and the sane, the rich and the poor, living side by side in remarkable harmony.

Bird without Wings is a story of people whose lives were greatly altered if not destroyed by so called bigger people who exercised horrible political judgments which fed nationalistic and religious ferocity. The little people of this novel are wonderfully colorful and full of delightful rural small town normalcy and quirkiness.
