Short story collection

This easy-to-use, easy-to-learn-from laboratory manual for environmental geology employs an interactive question-and-answer format that engages the student right from the start of each exercise. Tom Freeman, an award-winning teacher with 30 years experience, takes a developmental approach to learning that emphasizes principles over rote memorization. His writing style is clear and inviting, and he includes scores of helpful hints to coach students as they tackle problems.

Geert Lovink interviews an international group of artists, critics, and theorists on aesthetic, cultural, and political aspects of new media. For Geert Lovink, interviews are

Imaginative texts that can help to create global, networked discourses not only among different professions but also among different cultures and social groups. Conducting interviews online, over a period of weeks or months, allows the participants to compose documents of depth and breadth, rather than simply snapshots of timely references. The interviews collected in this book are with artists, critics, and theorists who are intimately involved in building the content, interfaces, and architectures of new media. The topics discussed include digital aesthetics, sound art, navigating deep audio space, European media philosophy, the Internet in Eastern Europe, the mixing of old and new in India, critical media studies in the Asia-Pacific region, Japanese techno

With its 104 chapters, this Encyclopedia of aquatic ecotoxicology reveals the diversity of issues, problems and challenges that have faced, and are facing today, receiving environments. It also indicates ways by which tools, strategies and future investigations can contribute to correct, minimize, solve and prevent water quality degradation. Structured homogeneously, the chapters convey salient information on historical background, features, characteristics, uses and/or applications of treated topics, often complemented by illustrations and case studies, as well as by conclusions and prospects. This work is most suitable for teaching purposes. Academics, for example, could literally deliver comprehensive Minnie's first love is dead and there's nothing she can do about it. But when the wild dog she met months ago tracks her down, and turns out to be a werewolf—now that's something she can deal with. The task seems simple enough: Help Cheveyo regain his memories, find his family, and reunite them. It's the perfect distraction from the sorrow that's plagued her all summer. The task, however, isn't at all what it seems. Instead of a happy reunion, Minnie discovers a dark underside to the supernatural world that not only threatens Cheveyo's life but the life of supernaturals the world over. This vampire life isn't turning out

This is a simple yet very powerful weekly (percentage style) budget workbook that is based on four, 4 letter words: GIVE SAVE LIVE PLAY What makes this budget so simple is that it is based on percentages. This makes it very easy for your student to calculate, and know exactly, what to do with their money. Percentage suggestions are made but, you choose your own percentages. Teach your student/child the power of generosity at work by giving first.
Watch your student/child savings grow by immediately setting aside a set percentage of their weekly income. Get a handle on expenses
