The best way for me to cope with envisioning that thin gray line--you know the one I mean; we all fear crossing it--is to write a novel, and thus was Ruin Falls born. But no children were harmed in the making of this book. I am a writer who can't stand much danger, appearances to the contrary notwithstanding.

Jenny Milchman » Ruin Falls » About The Book

I enjoyed Milchman's previous book Cover of Snow enough to have pre-ordered Ruin Falls (along with many other readers, it turns out). Jenny Milchman has done it again! I was swept into the story on page one and couldn't stop turning those pages. She has a way of writing a satisfying suspense story with the prose of a literary master.
