"The Arrival" by Shaun Tan fits none of these established models. It has no written text, but none are needed as the drawings are wonderful in depicting the story, and effective in evoking the emotions to be "drawn" in. It is the story of a man who is forced to leave his bleak homeland to seek opportunities in a new world.

Shaun Tan - Wikipedia

Shaun Tan's The Arrival documents the story of a man who immigrates to a new land by using visually striking illustrations. The protagonist encounters new and strange things in this new land as many immigrants did when they moved to a new place. It is unclear where the place the protagonist immigrates to due to the strange writings, animals, plants, food, and architecture.
