Muhammad's determination, character and unwavering faith in God and in his mission are responsible for the spread of Islam. Today, Islam is the fastest-growing religion. It is puzzling to ponder how an illiterate Arab merchant from 7 th century Arabia managed to spread Islam so rapidly and so pervasively. The answers are manifold: the life-altering principles of the Quran; the intellectual coherence of the Islamic faith; the linguistic beauty of the Quran, which overwhelmed even those who ...

The history of the spread of Islam spans about 1,500 years. Muslim conquests following Muhammad's death led to the creation of the caliphates, occupying a vast geographical area; conversion to Islam was boosted by missionary activities, particularly those of imams, who intermingled with local populations to propagate the religious teachings. These early caliphates, coupled with Muslim economics and trading, the Islamic Golden Age, and the Age of the Islamic Gunpowders, resulted in Islam's spread
